THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for GREELY and BROWN, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—H. A. London, Jr., Greeley and Brown Elector for this District, and Hon. John Manning, and others, will speak at Louisburg on the 10th inst., and at Kittrells on the 12th.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The weather is again extremely warm.

Franklin Superior Court commences to-day, (Monday.)

The patrons of Pepper inaugurated on oysters Saturday evening.

Several new buildings on Fayetteville street are in contemplation.

The streets are suffocatingly dry; where is the street sprinkler?

Miss Mary Snow was the belle and general favorite at Mrs. Price's pic-nic Friday.

Justice Wicker's Court was in session Saturday, settling an Oberlin "difficil," or a knock-down.

Scuppernong grapes are getting very plentiful in the market, and selling at reasonably low prices.

Workmen are now engaged repairing Dawson street, and travel on the same, between Davie and Martin streets, is temporarily cut off.

The Board of Directors for the Masonic Temple have been in session the past week, and we learn a favorable report was received from the canvassing agent.

A two-horse wagon, manufactured in Petersburg, Va., by Van Pelt, belonging to Simon G. Hayes, Esq., of Rhamkatte, attracted quite a number of farmers around it Saturday morning on Market Square. With the new improvements and the general "get up," they pronounced it a decided success.

We observed quite a stir among the Radicals on Saturday last. Harriss, J. C. Logan, after walking around muchly, betook himself to a carriage. Hawk Rogers was flying around equal to a bob tailed hen with one chicken. Marshal Carrow returned home from his long absence, and much street caucussing was observeable. We are not "skerred," but we would like to know what's up.

PEACE RE-UNION CONVENTION.—R. H. Gresham, Esq., invites the entire North Carolina delegation to this grand Convention in Louisville, Ky., on the 11th and 12th inst., to make their head quarters at his office, No. 74 West Main Street in that city, during their sojourn there. Very clever in Mr. Gresham. We wish we could go.

HISTORICAL DISCOURSE.—Dr. Pritchard will to-day (Sunday) deliver a sermon in which will be given the history of the Raleigh Baptist Church from its organization in 1812 to the present time.

THE WARRENTON BRUNSWICK STEW.—It was our pleasure to accompany a number of gentlemen from Warrenton Thursday last to "Suck" Spring, a beutifully shaded retreat, three miles from the town, to join in what is known in that section as a "Brunswick Stew."

A "Brunswick Stew" is a "stag" picnic where gentlemen alone participate, and is getten up as follows: The day preceding the appointed time, a large squirrel hunt is organised, and parties numbering generally from three to five, scour the woods in every direction for game, which is turned over at night to another party who preposes it for the pot. A spring is selected for the occasion with the natural advantages of shade and a hill side for rolling purposes which we will hereafter explain. The company is composed of the huntsmen, and generally the business men of the town, who are always more than glad of an opportunity for the pleasant recreation, and to enjoy the sport. The many Summer visitors to Warrenton from Eastern Carolina are invited and always attend.

The squirrels, birds, chickens, &c., with every vegitable of the season, much butter, pepper salt &c., make the stew which derives its name from Brunswick county Va., where it originated. Green turtle, mock turtle, oysters, clams, or anything else is fairly eclipsed as a palatable dish when compared to a Brunswick Stew.

The crowd assembles at the appointed place at about 11 o'clock, when the "day's doings" is inaugurated. On the occasion in which it was our pleasure to participate at "Suck" Spring, we met about thirty gentlemen.

The order of exercises opened with a general "smile" around the Spring, sugar and ice adding somewhat, with its peculiar properties, to the general effect. Cloths were spread on the ground, around which chess, bagamon and whist parties were formed, but the leading and most prominent point of attraction was a still larger cloth, with a still larger number gathering around, and hither we unsuspectingly bent our steps—determined to see all. Eight gentlemen were seating themselves around the cloth on which was an ear of corn and pack of cards. Take a hand? said one of the party to us. At what? we asked. "Rolling poker," he replied. We observed as we sat by the board a rather quizzical expression of countenance that betokened to us no good, but we "went in." The game is the ordinary "freeze out" poker, the party frozen out paying the penalty of rolling down the hill above referred to in the presence of the company. The old and experienced stewers understand the game, and we soon had occasion to observe "that for ways that are dark and tricks that are vain," they seemed to be peculiar. The first "roll" of the day was admirably performed by a young gentleman just from college, who was prevailed upon to take a hand "in a game he did not understand." The second appearance on the hill side, was that of the mayor of the town, whose corpulent frame rather interfered with the start, but getting off he came down equal to a hogshead of tobacco. On the third round we observed stretched out at the top of the hill, six feet and two inches of Warren counties' sheriff, who would have acquitted himself handsomely, had he not overdone the thing by rolling in the branch at the foot the hill.

An extraordinary effort was made to roll us by the party, but the hands that we played were to them "quite frightful to see." We observed "truthful James" that sat opposite us look up "at Nye," and Nye back at him, and they seemed to say "with a sigh, can it be that we can't roll this editor," but so it was.

The stew was announced ready at 3 o'clock, after a general smile, "we went for it," and found it as it should have been—good. After dinner, several of the gentlemen present were called upon for a song. Among the number that responded was Dr. T. S. Brownlow, the venerable proprietor of the Warrenton Hotel, now nearly eighty years of age, and Mr. McDowell, of Edenton, also about the same age.

NORTH CAROLINA CORPORATIONS.—Saturday we visited the office of W. H. Finch, Esq., the State Insurance Commissioner and Examiner of Corporations, and we were pleased to observe the healthy condition of the various corporations, now in force in the State.

The law requires every officer of every corporation having in his possession any books, accounts or paper of any company of which he is an officer, to exhibit the same on demand of the commissioner, and a severe penalty is attached should any false or fraudulent exhibit be made.

We learn from Mr. Finch that many of the corporations have not as yet reported, and the penalty is also attached for a failure to do so.

We would suggest that the time required by law is drawing to a close, and prompt attention to the matter is important.

EDUCATIONAL.—We are pleased to learn that the school of Mr. White, at the Baptist Grove, numbers between forty and fifty scholars and increasing daily. Having exceeded his expectations, Mr. White has bought a lot at a central point on Morgan street, where he will at once erect a large and commodious Academy. Mr. E. B. Thomas, a young gentleman throughly competent, has been employed as assistant of the Academy.

MANY PERSONS are continually complaining of bad luck, when their ill-fortune is nothing more than their own want of energy and perseverance. Bad luck is simply a man with his hands in his pockets and a pipe in his mouth, looking on to see how it will come out. Good luck is a man with his shirt sleeves rolled up and working with a will to make it come right!

DEATH OF DEPUTY U. S. MARSHAL LYNN BANKS, ESQ.,—KILLED BY A RUNAWAY HORSE.—It is our painful duty to record the death of Deputy U. S. Marshal Lynn Banks, of this city, which occurred Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at Carey, six miles west of this city.

Mr. Banks was returning from a visit to his relatives near Carey, and crossing the N. C. Railroad at Asbury about five miles above this city, he encountered the outgoing 1 o'clock freight train, which frightened his horse, causing him to upset the buggy from which he was thrown violently to the ground with sufficient force to break his skull. He was picked up in an insensible condition by some colored men and taken to Carey. A messenger was at once despatched to this city to notify his brother, Dr. R. S. Banks, who, with Dr. W. H. McKee, hastened to his bedside, but too late to find him conscious. The unfortunate man lived only five minutes after the arrival of Dr. McKee and his brother.

Mr. Banks was a very efficient officer and highly esteemed and respected in this city, where he is well and favorably known.

We are not prepared to attach any blame to the railroad authorities for this accident, but if there was a statute law as in other States requiring engineers to sound an alarm at every crossing, Mr. Banks would now be alive and no accident have occurred. Mr. Banks was aware that his horse was afraid of the train, but as he emerged from a cut in the road where he could not hear it running, he came immediately on the train in motion, when, if the alarm had been sounded, he could have prepared for the emergency.

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION—A REMARKABLE CIRCUMSTANCE.—J. W. Lashley, a highly respected and much esteemed citizen of this county, died at the residence of his mother near New Hill, but a short distance from the city, on the 30th ult. After his corpse had been laid out on the bier in the centre of the room, and his friends and relatives were standing around, some of whom were giving vent to their grief by sobs and tears, a turtle-dove flew in the room and lighting upon the breast of the corpse, sang its mournful and plaintive ditty, then flapping its wings over the corpse, arose and flew out again. The circumstance, which was related to us by a gentleman present, was witnessed by every one in the room, and the effect of this strange freak of the bird on the audience cannot be described.

Children Drowned at Sea—A Touching Story.

It is now ascertained that forty lives were lost on the steamer Metis. The funeral of Mrs. Sheridan, the actress, at Boston, took place on Tuesday. It was largely attended. One of the most touching stories of the disaster is told by Mr. Adams, of Brooklyn, who had charge of two children, both of whom were drowned. We copy it:

"The engine must have stopped for fully half an hour. During the interval of her laying to I think I heard the sound of a whistle, as if from a passing steamer. When we started again I heard the working of the donkey engine. I then became somewhat anxious and sprang again out of my berth. I pulled on my trousers and put on my shoes, the children still quietly sleeping. Though alarmed myself, I thought it better that they should remain quiet until I had ascertained more fully what was the matter, and for that purpose went into the saloon, where I found some of the officers and many of the passengers. I was not under any great apprehension just then, and was about returning to the boys when I met an officer, I do not know his name, who said, 'The boat is sinking; the passengers must save themselves as best they can.' Instantly realizing our position, it flashed across my mind that I must not endeavor to save the lives of the brothers intrusted to my care separately, but that we must all cling to one another. I instantly ran to the children, woke them up, and tied securely a life-preserver around both of them, taking one myself. I took my waistcoat, buttoned my coat around me, and went aft.

"They were as gentle as lambs, and seemed aware that something dreadful was about to happen, and obeyed my orders implicitly, showing the greatest heroism. I then noticed that the steamer was settling forward, and hurried as rapidly as possible aft. While going there a gentleman named McCrillis asked me if I wanted another life preserver. I replied that it would be of great value, as it might save the children's lives. He gave it to me willingly. I took it and carried it on my arm. There was no time to lose. I took the children to the after part of the boat, to the guards, and told them they must jump into the sea with me, and that they must put all their trust in me, and that I would not leave them. The waves were then very high, commencing to break over the bows of the Metis, and the rain was pouring down in torrents. I hesitated for a moment, thinking whether it would not be better to remain yet awhile with the ship; but noticing that she was breaking up forward, the timbers commencing to fly up, and her hull settling, I saw that her doom was sealed. I remained with the children until the water began to wash over the main deck and threatened to submerge us. Placing a chair by the bulwarks, with one foot on it and the other on the side of the ship, with my left arm I hugged the children close to me, and with a desperate leap I sprang into the sea with them. The poor little fellows never uttered a sound of alarm. I had some slight hope of reaching a boat manned by some of the crew of the Metis, and shouted out that if only they would take the boys on board I could take care of myself. The wind, and rain, had there been a boat near, would probably have prevented their hearing me. With the two children, I was rapidly carried by the current to the bows of the ship. There was a quantity of floating debris there, which I was for a time afraid would kill us.

"At the second effort, by vigorously pushing against the bow with my feet, I succeeded in disenthralling myself and the children, receiving three or four slight contusions. I had now succeeded in putting around me the second life-preserver, and with one arm clasping the boys, with the other was holding the children up as far out of the water as I could, exhorting them to keep their chins well up out of the water. Shortly after the second time of our being carried forward to her bows the Metis went down. Then kegs, barrels, cotton bales, and spars seemed to spring to the surface of the water, and I tried in vain to catch hold of some of them; but sea was violent, and though I had my hands on some of them, they eluded my grasp, and very soon we were carried clear of them. About twenty five minutes had elapsed since we had taken to the sea, and poor little Carl presently seemed to be growing weaker and weaker. I continued my exertions to keep his head clear of the high running waves. The child made no complaint, no murmur.

"Presently the younger brother died. Even then the children were together, and I then exerted all my efforts towards saving Arthur. I placed his head higher up on my shoulder, and said: 'Do, Arthur, hold your head up just as high as you can; I will save you.' His reply was, 'I can't.' Very soon afterward he died.

"My thoughts were then centred on saving their bodies, and restoring them, if possible, to their parents; but very soon I felt myself becoming weaker and weaker, and the exertion I had made to save the children was producing physical exhaustion. After a long struggle in my mind whether I should part with their poor bodies I was reluctantly forced to let them go, knowing that the life-preserver, still tightly secured around them, would float them. As we were drifting toward the shore I took the second life-preserver, and secured them both around my person, knowing that the battle for my own life must soon commence.

"It was just then beginning to become clear, and a dull, murky light announced the coming day. I had been there an hour and a half in the water. I felt myself becoming gradually weaker and weaker, the seas dashing over me and taking away my breath, and thought my last hour had come, when I saw a heavy gang plank coming towards me. I suppose it was a gang plank from having cleats nailed on it. I was then so exhausted that it took all the efforts of a drowning man to secure it. It was floating beneath the surface of the water, apparently weighted down by splinters coming from the wreck. I succeeded in getting on it, when a wave washed me off, and I was carried away twenty feet from it. The strings of my life-preserver snapped, and it slipped around my neck. This had a tendency to keep my head from under the water, and I was now so utterly weakened that I almost gave up. Just then another wave drove the life-preserver down again to my waist. How the plank was again secured by me I cannot tell. My lower limbs and arms were so stiff and cramped that all I could do was to hold the plank with my heel and retain it near me until I regained some little strength. At last I got to my former position on the plank, the waves breaking over me all the time, making me icy cold, and the quantity of salt water I had swallowed causing me to feel ill and faint.

"Just then the storm seemed to recommence with new fury, and I again despaired of ever reaching shore. Presently, however, daylight appeared, and I saw afar off the top-mast of some vessel, though I could not make out her hull. This cheered me. A short time after I heard some calling me. In a few moments I distinguished Mr. McCrillis, the gentleman who had given me the life-preserver. He asked me me if I had seen the land. I replied that I had not, but looking back of me I saw Watch Hill. Mr. McCrillis was on a cork mattress and some distance ahead of me. I soon neared him, and he asked me whether I thought my plank would carry another man and I reached out my hand to him and took him on, together with his mattress.

"Shortly after that the life-boat came in sight and made for us rapidly. They hailed us and bid us get on board. I think we were almost among the last in the water who were saved. The life-boat had picked up a very stout man and woman who had been kept above water by means of the bucket-rack of the Metis. The children were found clasped in each other's arms with the life-preserver attached to them, and it has been my melancholy duty to bring their bodies here to their sorrowing father."

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND I LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano, Grant's Secretary of Interior, in his speech at Raleigh.

IN THIS FAITH, AND WITH THE DISTINCT UNDERSTANDING THAT IF ELECTED, I SHALL BE THE PRESIDENT, NOT OF A PARTY, BUT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE, I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MASSES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE EAGER TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM, WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM, FORGETTING THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ENEMIES, IN THE JOYFUL CONSCIOUSNESS THAT THEY ARE, AND MUST HENCEFORTH REMAIN, BRETHREN. —HORACE GREELEY.

"We want a President without a party; a government without corruption; a Congress without price; and a Judiciary without politics."—B. Gratz Brown.

A REQUEST.

We would be glad to get the full name and Post Office address of every member elect to the Legislature, so that we may publish a correct list for the information of the public. The first list published by us was very inaccurate, although we notice it continues to be copied by our cotemporaries.

Will not some friend in each County send us the desired information concerning his own member or members?

THE BOND OF ALLIANCE.

The Radicals profess that they cannot understand why it is, that Democrats who have heretofore been so hostile to Mr. Greeley, can be guilty of the inconsistency of advocating his claims to the Presidency.

They are very fond of quoting old editorials of the New York Tribune, which they denominate "choice extracts," abusive of the Democratic party and its leaders.

They exhibit a feverish apprehension lest the Democratic party will desert the faith of its fathers, and prove false to the memories of Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson.

They are wonderfully exercised over the fancied discovery that the Democrats are about to forsake the "pure and lofty sentiments of their ancient creed," and embrace the doctrines of the Republican party.

Now, a disinterested observer would imagine that the Radicals would rejoice that their former opponents were disposed to renounce their political faith, and come over to the Republican side.

If Democratic doctrines were as mischievous and dangerous as their opponents have heretofore proclaimed them to be; if Democracy is synonymous with fraud and corruption and rascality, as it has been represented; then it should be a cause of congratulation among Radical patriots, that such pernicious political tenets have been abandoned, and the party advocating them has ceased to exist.

One would think, if the Radicals were sincere in their denunciations of Democracy heretofore, they ought to be exceedingly thankful now, if what they assert be true, that the party is broken up, and a new organization, led by a Republican, one of their former most distinguished and trusted leaders, has taken the place of the so-called "copperhead" faction.

Now, we do not admit that our party has abandoned one principle, or departed a iota from any article in its political faith, simply because, being unable to elect a candidate of its own, it has to select a life-long opponent, in opposition to the Radical nominee.

The Democratic party, after a calm and deliberate survey of the field, decided to waive its right to nominate a candidate from its own ranks, both as a matter of policy and of public duty to the country. First, as a matter of policy, because of its thorough conviction of the impossibility of defeating Grant by a regular Democratic candidate; and secondly, as a matter of public duty, because the peace, happiness, prosperity and honor of the country demanded General Grant's defeat, and the only assurance we had to accomplish this object, was by consolidating all the elements opposed to his Administration under one banner and under one leader.

Hence the bond of alliance between the Democrats and Liberal Republicans is based on high and patriotic grounds.

It is founded on the principle that the highest interests of the country demand the defeat of President Grant.

The North demands it, because the Northern people are anxious to see the Union restored upon the basis of reconciliation and genuine peace.

The South demands it, because the Southern people, under the present Administration, are suffering all the severities and outrages of carpet-bag reconstruction and military despotism.

The whole country demands it, because the people, North and South, are disgusted with the present incompetent, personal, corrupt and tyrannical Administration, and are clamoring for political reform and honesty, and a restoration of good feeling and amity between the two sections lately engaged in deadly strife.

The bond of alliance between Democrats and Liberal Republicans appeals to the noblest impulses of the popular heart, and demands a pure, faithful, economical, patriotic administration of public affairs; but above all a restored Union of co-equal States, all moving harmoniously and grandly together, enjoying equal rights, equal privileges, equal blessings.

THE SENATORSHIP.

The Asheville Pioneer devotes most of its editorial space, in its last issue, to the discussion of the question of the next United States Senatorship.

It seeks to drag the RALEIGH NEWS into the contest, and to force from us some expression of preference for one or the other of the gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in connection with that position. In this it will surely fail.

Because the NEWS, in common with every Democratic paper in the State, has called for the investigation into the charges of Radical frauds so universally made, and, in the name of the people, demanded that if Judge Merrimon has received a majority of the lawful votes, he be installed as Governor, the Pioneer has made the remarkable discovery that we are opposed to the election of Judge Merrimon to the United States Senate.

If that be an inference to be drawn from our position, why does the Pioneer single out our paper as hostile to Judge Merrimon's claims to the Senatorship, when all the Democratic papers of the State, (with perhaps the single exception of the Hillsboro' Recorder, which, we believe, claims to be independent in politics,) occupy the identical ground in relation to the charges of fraud which has been taken by the NEWS?

Why does it not assail the Asheville Citizen, the Raleigh Sentinel, Wilmington Journal and Star, and, in fact, every Democratic journal that has stood and now stands with us on the subject of frauds, and in the name of the party, and of right and justice, asked for an investigation?

The Asheville Pioneer bestows some very high and merited compliments on Judge Merrimon; but as we stated in a former article, such language comes with very bad grace from a journal, that throughout the recent campaign, teemed with the most infamous and scurrilous defamation of Judge Merrimon's political and private character.

Some of the most violent and abusive articles that appeared during the contest were those sent forth over the State from the office of the Pioneer, charging Judge Merrimon with all manner of crimes, swindling and rascality.

We took occasion to denounce these articles through our columns time and again, and for doing this the Pioneer charged the NEWS with being "the mouth piece of Merrimon, and his organ at Raleigh."

For the information of the Pioneer, we will take this opportunity to say to that journal that the NEWS is not the organ of any individual, faction or clique. It has a higher aim in view than the promotion of the personal interests of any man or set of men. It has an eye single to the good of the party whose principles it advocates and defends, and for whose success it shall labor, in the future as in the past, with all its power. It places the welfare of the party, upon which depends the destiny of the State, above the personal ambition of any individual, no matter what services he has rendered or sacrifices he has made in our cause.

So far as the United States Senatorship is concerned, the insinuations of the Pioneer that we have directly or indirectly espoused the cause of any candidate are entirely gratuitous. We shall observe a course of strict neutrality, leaving the matter entirely with the Democratic members of the Legislature, who alone are to decide it.

We can also inform the Pioneer that if the Executive Committee receive sufficient evidences of fraud to overcome Caldwell's majority, Judge Merrimon will contest, regardless of what effect the contesting will have on his chances for the Senatorship. We know he will do his full duty to himself, his party and the State. The fulsome adulations of the Radical press will not move him one inch from the line of rectitude or honor.

If Judge Merrimon should make a successful contest against Caldwell before the Legislature, the people will then have that gallant and high-toned gentleman, Maj. Jno. Hughes, for Lieutenant Governor; and in case of a vacancy in the Gubernatorial chair, for any cause, Maj. Hughes would honorably fill the highest office in the gift of the people of the State.

IS THAT THE REASON?

The Asheville Pioneer, from being one of the most virulent and reckless defamers of Judge Merrimon, now daubs that distinguished gentlemen with high compliments of the most flattering character.

What is the cause of this sudden and amusing inconsistency in the tone of the Pioneer?

The Pioneer goes so far as to advocate Judge Merrimon's claims to the United States Senatorship, and intimates that the Republican members of the Legislature will give him their unanimous vote!

All this, after a course of persistent and shameful abuse and denunciation of that gentleman through its columns!

The most reasonable explanation is that the Pioneer is trying to buy off Judge Merrimon from contesting Caldwell's seat by its deceitful flattery.

But perhaps there is still another reason. It is known that the Pioneer, during the Gubernatorial canvass, contained the most foul and libelous slanders against Judge Merrimon's character.

The Judge is determined that his assailants shall not escape with impunity. He is determined to vindicate himself from the false charges of his political enemies. To that end, it is his purpose, as we heard him so express it, a day or two before he left this city for Asheville, to bring suit against certain Radical papers who have defamed and libeled him. Has the Pioneer heard of this determination on the point of the Judge? If so, possibly hence these praises.

PLAIN TALK.

The Democratic press of the State treat with the right spirit the threat of the Carolina Era to resort to force, to prop Caldwell in the gubernatorial chair, if the Legislature should ferret out enough frauds to overcome the reputed Radical majority.

The threat of the Era was made either in earnest or it was meant for buncombe.

If in earnest, that paper is guilty of a crime in advising forcible resistance to the law.

If not in earnest, it was intended as a little strategetical game to intimidate the Legislature from the discharge of its duty.

In either event, the proposition will utterly fail of its purpose, for it will not have the slightest influence upon the action of the General Assembly. We copy elsewhere, from the Salisbury Watchman, a few plain words on this subject, which the Era would do well to ponder.

MAJ. JOHN W. DUNHAM.

In a recent number of the Wilmington Journal we notice a deserved compliment to this gallant and gifted gentleman. We endorse all that the Journal says of Maj. Dunham's ability and talents. He will take a high stand in the next Senate of North Carolina, and add still further to the reputation he made in the House of Representatives.

(From the Salisbury Watchman.

They Will Resist.

The Raleigh Era in an article on the probabilities of the Legislature contesting the fraudulent election of Caldwell, says: "The Republicans will resist any attempt to seat Judge Merrimon."

The gist of all this is, if the Legislature, acting in strict conformity with the Constitution, proceeds to investigate the alleged frauds in obedience to the demands of the people, and that body finds and so declares that Merrimon has received a majority of the legal votes, then, notwithstanding this fact, the Rads will resist his being seated.—That is what their organ, speaking for Caldwell and his party, says. Wonder if they will? We know they are capable of almost anything; but we can't think that they have so little sense as to attempt such a thing as open resistance to law and the Constitution. Unless they have all insured their lives and made arrangements for a wonderful big grave yard, they had probably better not undertake so hazardous a game. There are not enough carpet-baggers, scalawags, nor negroes, in the State to prevent the execution of the law. The Democratic and Conservative people of North Carolina will attend to this matter. All they demand is an impartial investigation of the frauds and an honest verdict. If the matter is brought before the Legislature with the proper evidence, and the Democratic-Conservative members fail to receive and to act upon it, woe be unto them. The people demand a thorough investigation, and the seating of the legally elected Governor, and they will take care of Radical resistance.

The farmers of Alabama plough through four feet of caterpillars before they reach the quiet earth.

CUPID BAFFLED.

THE STRANGE AND ROMANTIC SEPARATION OF A LOVING COUPLE—ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.

We learned yesterday the particulars of quite a romantic affair that happened a few weeks ago that is worth repeating. Away up in the wilderness through which passes the northern extension of the Jackson, Lansing, and Saginaw railroad may be seen the inumerable cottages of the hardy pioneers. Among these rude cabins is one occupied by an estimable and Christian family named Brown; the life and light of the household being a lovely and charming young daughter named Sarah. Mr. Brown and his family formerly resided in Genessee county, where Sarah formed the acquintance of a young man of good moral character named William M. Pratt. In the course of time Mr. Brown removed to the home he now occupies, and the loving pair became temporarily separated. Mr. Pratt was fortunate enough to get work after a time in the same section of the country, and, of course, the old love revived. Presents were sent and received, and in due course of time the question was popped, the parental consent gained, the date of the nuptials fixed, and the happy pair were indeed in an elysium of bliss. The day rapidly approached, and in order tr prevent suspicion the young lady came to this city a day or two ahead of time, visited her friends in Salina, and returned to this city in season to meet the expected groom—the happy William; but by some unforseen and unexplainable circumstance they failed to connect, and two happy hearts were made miserable. One inquired and searched for the other until they both gave it up and relapsed into melancholy. The girl, in her fruitless efforts to find Mr. Pratt, got away up above Midland, on the Flint and Pere Marquette railway, where, entirely without friends or money, she found it necessary to hire out to do housework in order to earn money enough to get home with again. This she accomplished after working a fortnight, and then started for home, broken-hearted. At Wells the passengers going still further north had to get on board the construction train. Miss Brown did so, and what was her surprise to meet on that train her long-lost William! The surprise and joy were mutual. Explanations ensued, vows were re-pledged, and the pair were again happy. Fortunately for them, Elder C. P. Wilson, of this city, was aboard, and for fear something might turn up again to separate them, his services were immediately sought. The train sped on until it reached Mitchell's supply camp, in Ogemaw county, where the couple and the Elder alighted, and prepared to perform the much sought for trying process. As it was something after midnight, every one at the camp was asleep, but by dint of rapping and yelling two men were awakened, and after some delay made their appearance as witnesses to the sacred contract soon to be entered into by

"Two souls with but a single thought,
Two hearts that beat as one."

The ceremony was duly performed, the blessing of Divine Providence invoked to rest upon the happy pair, and they sought shelter in a neighbor's house, where they remained the rest of the night, and in the morning repaired to the residence of Father Brown for the paternal blessing. This is probably the first wedding that ever took place in Ogemaw county.—Bay River (Mich.) Journal.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

The undersigned, as Executor of the last Will and Testament of Thomas E. Green deceased, and by virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Warren County, will sell to the highest bidder on Saturday, the 26th day of October next, at the Court House door in Warrenton, N. C., that most valuable property known as situated on the waters of Fishing Creek, two miles South west of Warrenton, and four miles from Ridgeway and Warrenton Depots. These mills are in good repair except the Dam needs new sheeting and new Bolting Cloths are needed. With an expense of three or four hundred dollars the Mills can be made as good as any in Warren County. They have been refitted with new Burr Stones the present year. They contain three runners, two for grinding corn and one for wheat, and the water power is amply sufficient to run a large Factory. The Dam is built on a rock foundation, and never was known to break. Fifty acres of land attached to the Mills will be sold with them.

There is a very good Dwelling House on the premises, with three rooms and all necessary out houses including a new Ice House. I consider this the most valuable property ever offered for sale in this market. I deem a further description unnecessary, as persons desirous of purchasing can examine for themselves upon application to myself or my brother Frank T. Green, who lives near the Mills. This property will be sold on a credit of six and twelve months; bond with approved security required before possession is given, and title retained until all the money is paid.

PLUMMER W. GREEN,
Executor and Commissioner.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

VALUABLE HINTS.—A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an anti-bilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

A MELANCHOLY BREAK-DOWN.—There are lively break-downs that make an audience laugh, and there are sad and sorrowful break-downs that make the kind-hearted grieve. To the latter class belongs the enervation of body and mind which is usually called "general debility," or "nervous weakness," and which, when neglected, too often terminates in atrophy and death. A wholesome medicated stimulant is the one thing needed in cases of this description, and science and experience unite in pointing to PLANTATION BITTERS as the true specific. The fact that it combines the properties of an invigorant with those of a regulator and alterative, in exactly the proportions necessary to produce a radical change in the tone of the system, and the action of the digestive and secretive organs, is an unanswerable argument in its favor as a general restorative.

"G. M. D."

Don't stand aghast with awe and fear, eyes wide open, hair on end and fingers tightly clinched with the idea that these mysterious symbols are cabalistic signs and represent some secret organization of masked demons, who carry terror and dismay with their midnight prowlings and disperse on the dawn of morning. No! They are only the initials of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that pleasant medicine which has acquired a National reputation and proven so efficacious in Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption and kindred diseases. For these complaints it has no equal. Sold by all druggists.

"THE LIFE OF THE FLESH IS THE BLOOD."—This being the fact, it is very obvious that when the blood becomes corrupted the whole system becomes corrupt also. To relieve this, the true policy undoubtedly is to direct the remedy to the source of the disease. It is in this manner that Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight acts. Its specific effect is on the blood; it purifies it, vitalizes it, and expels all distemper from the system.

Being free from violent Minerals, it is adapted to general use. The old and young may use it; the most delicate female, at any time, may take it; the weak and enfeebled will be strengthened by it; the tender infant, who may have inherited disease, will be cured by it.

For Syphilis, and all its trains of evils, it is a sure antidote.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pill are a mild and gentle purgative, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestive or torpid liver. They have no equal.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye is the Best in Use.

THE GALES OF ARABY are not spicier than the aroma which the fragrant Sozodont imparts to the breath. Nor is the heart of the ivory nut whiter than the teeth that are cleaned daily with that matchless fluid.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—No one who has ever used Dr. Tobias' Horse Venetian Liniment, will ever be without it; it is a certain cure for Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises and Old Sores. Warranted superior to any other; in pint bottles, at One Dollar. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

BURNETT'S STANDARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS are neatly put up in Unpannelled 2 oz., 4 oz. and 10 oz. bottles, and are for sale by the trade generally in every principal city and town in the United States, Canadas, and British Provinces, as well as in many other foreign countries.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS.—You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Whether your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness it has no equal.

CARBOLIC SALVE, recommended by Physicians, as the great Healing Compound. Price 25 cents per box. John P Henry, sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE stands unrivalled in the world. No lady or gentleman of discrimination uses any other. It is the most perfect, reliable and effective Hair Dye in the world. Manufactory, 68 Maiden Lane, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

SYAPNIA, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the market, made by process of Dr. I. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it? no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 5 Gold Street, New York.

KOSKOO.—This celebrated Medicine has attained a high reputation, as a reliable remedy for Purifying the Blood, Restoring the Liver and Kidneys to a healthy action, and "Toning up" the Nervous System. Its numerous and remarkable cures of the worst forms of Scrofula, Dyspepsia Rheumatism, Liver complaint, Kidney Disease, Eruptions of the Skin, Nervous Prostration, &c., has caused it to become a standard remedy. It is now prescribed by physicians, and recommended by our best citizens.

STATE MATTERS.

☞ Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

THE Wilmington papers complain of a superabundance of dust in that city.

SPIRITS of turpentine advanced 7½ cents per gallon in the Wilmington market last week.

THE Tarboro Southerner did not come to hand this week. What's the matter, neighbor?

The Journal says there is not a Democrat in Wilmington who favors the Louisville movement.

THE Richmond Stock Company have engaged the Wilmington Opera House during the Cape Fear Fair week.

A GREELEY and Brown Club has been organized at Ringwood, Halifax county, Dr. Frank Garrett, President.

ALLEN EATON, colored, lately of Rocky Mount, is now in Granville engaged in working for Greeley and Brown.

THE Mecklenburg Presbytery, in session in Asheville last week, adjourned on Saturday. The Rev. George Summey passed a successful examination.

THE Sparkling Catawba Springs, under the management of Maj. J. M. Blair, has been well patronized this season. We are pleased to learn that Maj. Blair has met with this success.

THE prospects indicate that the crops of corn and cotton in North Carolina will be over an average. In some of the more Southern States the cotton crop has been damaged from several causes.

CRAVEN county sends to the Senate this year A. S. Seymour, Representative member of the House in '68-'69, and to the House C. R. Dudley, col., member in '70-'71, and J. B. Abbott, col., door keeper of the House during the days of Littlefield's reign in that department.

There is a man in Portland, Me., who supports his family in handsome style by simply tieing an able-bodied cat by the tail to a clothes' line every night, and then going out in the morning to collect the soap, shaving cups, brushes, &c., thrown into the yard by angry boarders in adjoining houses.

A BALE of new cotton has been sold in Weldon at 23 cents. It was grown by Messrs. E. S. and J. W. White.

THE Warrenton Gazette says that after the present special tax has been collected, Warren county will not owe a cent, and her bonds will be at par.

MRS. MARTHA WEDDELL, of Tarboro', died in Baltimore on Wednesday last. Mrs. Weddell was a grand-daughter of the late Dr. Norcom, one of the most celebrated physicians that our State has yet boasted.

MR. CATES, who has charge of Col. Wm. S. Davis' mill in Warren county, asserts that he has been offered by a man, who is considered a good Conservative in Warrenton, one hundred dollars per month to go in the western part of the State and work for Grant. So says the Gazette.

A WARREN negro, named Peter Plummer, while at the late Radical "bust" at Battleboro, "borrowed" a suit of Sunday clothes from a brother "truly loil," and made his escape with them towards Weldon. He was followed, overtaken at Enfield just as he was getting on the train, seized and carried around the corner, stripped and left friendless, penniless and clotheless. So says the Battleboro Advance.

A CORRESPONDENT from Craven says: "We are preparing for the November fight, and will give Greeley and Brown the same vote we have heretofore given the Democratic-Conservative ticket. All the white men except office-holders, and I am glad to know that a few colored men, vote the Conservative ticket in this county and are to be found at the polls on election day. No straight-outs here yet. The crops are good, cotton high, and the farmers jubilant. The caterpillar has done some damage, but has disappeared."

THE following is the vote of the State in the late election, by Congressional Districts, in the vote for Congressmen, making the Republican majority on the Congressional vote twelve hundred more than that of Caldwell:

	Republican.	Democratic.

A RICH WIDOW MARRIES HER NIGHT-WATCHMAN.—A few months ago Nicholas Moore, a well-known Harlem builder, who had amassed about $300,000, died, leaving the property to his wife, an attractive widow of forty. The late Mr. Moore had in his employ a nightwatchman, John Hughes, whom he had paid $8 a week. He was an awkward, overgrown fellow, uncouth and unattractive in every way. Shortly after the builder's death, Mrs. Moore was often seen walking with Hughes late at night, accompanying him in his round of duties. This was attributed to her anxiety for the safety of her houses. At length the widow sold a block of houses for $186,000 and started for Manhattanville, accompanied by Hughes, and there the nuptials of the pair were celebrated. They are spending their honeymoon at the residence of the bride, on Twenty-second street, and another man watches the property.

GOOD FOR THE WOMEN.—In one of the London University announcements it is said "the result of examinations held in this country and in America go far to prove the intellectual equality of the sexes in science as well as languages and literature, where equal advantages of training are enjoyed and equal incentives to study are supplied."

The Congressional contest in Virginia is getting a little warmed up. The election will be upon the same day with the Presidential election.

"IDLEWILD"

FOR SALE

—AT—

AUCTION!

That Splendid property, on Newbern avenue, in the city of Raleigh, known as

"IDLEWILD,"

The dwelling is the largest and most perfect private residence in the city, containing fifteen rooms, as follows: One 32x22; five 22x22; seven 20x20; two 15x12, and two large halls; a passage way 48 feet by 10. The house is two stories, with dressed rock basement, upper and lower porches with large columns on each side. All the necessary out-houses, stables, carriage house, &c., &c., are on the premises.

The lot contains about three acres including a large garden with the most magnificent oak grove surrounding the residence to be found in the State; a most beautiful and sloping lawn of ample depth and width fronts the dwelling. This property is the most desirable in the city—situated on an elevation of some fifty feet above the Capitol; the healthiest and most attractive and growing part of the city; the grounds, fences, residence and out-buildings are in the most perfect order—not one dollar is required to be spent on same.

The above valuable property will be offered for sale at the Court House door in Raleigh, on Wednesday, October 16th, at 12 o'clock. Terms easy.

N. B.—This property has been highly recommended for a Boys' Civil or Military School; an institution of both kinds sadly needed at this point.

For particulars, address

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds o the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premeums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

UNION SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE.

AGENTS WANTED

In every county in North and South Carolina. Unparralleled inducements offered to Agents, larger commissions being paid than is done by any other Company.

This Machine is particularly adapted to those persons who are unable to purchase one of higher priced Machines, the prices ranging from $25 to $55. The UNION SHUTTLE is the only low-priced Lock-Stitch Machine that has any claim of merit in it. It stands without a rival for its durability, strength and firmness of finish, making, at a low price, a Sewing Machine equal to the highest priced ones, and, in some respects, superior to them all.

MONDAY.....SEPTEMBER 9, 1872.

DEFEAT.

I.

He took her hand and looked at her;
No sound did that deep stillness stir;
Even the weary wandering rain
Had ceased to beat upon the pane;
Only about the perfect mouth
A sigh, more faint than the faint south,
Hovered a moment's space, and then
Died into nothingness again.

II.

The words he spoke were brief and slow;
What could he say, she did not know?
What pulse of that impetuous soul
But owned her calm serene control?
No need for him to test her heart
With cunning fence of verbal art;
Only to ask and wait her will,
And, winning—losing—love her still.

III.

Perhaps she wavered; ay, perhaps
The shadow of the cloud that wraps
The future from our questioning gaze
Let in some glimpse of after-days,
Some hint of all she might possess
In that true spirit's tenderness,
If but her weaker life might move
Unto the music of his love.

IV.

Perhaps! Who knows? He only knew
The large dark eyes were dim with dew,
Saw only the mouth's sweet bloom
The shadow of reluctant doom,
Felt only one sad gentle word,
And then through the deep stillness heard
Once more the weary wandering rain
Beat dull against the window pane.

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, (having a better record for cotton than those)—to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $58 cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to
